(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., April 11.--Insanity threatened murder, burglary and incendiarisin were a few of the sensational 1estures of the destruction of ex-Judge Timothy Rives's home in Prince George county at 2 o'clock Tuesday morning by Peter J. Hill, a negro supposed to have become suddenly insune about religion.

Aroused from bed by Hill's wife and Aroused from bed by Hill's wife and two children, who were fleeing from threatened death, Judge Rives was soon confronted by the lunatic, who came up on the run, broke into the house, and yelled to the Judge that he intended to cut his damned throat."

The woman and children fled in terfor, but Judge Rives, knowing the negro, and supposing that he had suddenly lost his mind, did not fire on him, though simed with shotgun and pistol. Chad only in his night clothes he hastened to the house of a neighbor about half a mile off, and when the two returned the house was in flames, the negro having set fire to several rooms in the building, which was entirely consumed.

Valuable legal papers were destroyed and two thousand dollars cash in an iron safe was charred, but eighteen hundred of it was accepted for deposit by a Petersburg bank to-day. There was no insurance on the house, which was valued at four thousand dollars. Judge Rives is in Petersburg to-day, and estimates his loss at five thousand dollars.

The crazed negro was caught yesterday, and ordered to Central State Hospital.

Mr. Albert Owen, a well known Din-day, and ordered to Central State Hospital.

Mr. Albert Owen, a well known Dinwiddle county farmer, residing on the Plank road about four miles from Petersburg, was parayzed at the breakfast table this morning, and died before a physician could reach him.

A trolly car and farm wagon collision at Sycamore and Washington Streets, about five o'clock this afternoon, broke the wagon all to pieces, and knocked out two Bohemian farmers from Prince George county, John Vejuar and Kris Hurnus, both of whom were quite badly hurt, especially the older man, Hurnus, who was carried into J. P. Bankw's drugstore as limp as a rag, his head severely cut in several places. Both were sent to the Home for the Sick. Bysanders criticised the car men for not stopping when the wagon was backed towards the track by the horse, who was frightened by an approaching train.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NEWPORT NEWS, V.A., April II.—Because the board of aldermen and common council are constantly at loggerheads, it is very likely that an effort will be made to have the rules governing the local council changed so as to abolish the joint committees now existing and provide for the appointment of separate committees by the presidents.

During a meeting of the aldermen last night, Col. Maryus Jones, president of the hoard, declared that unless there was a change in conditions shortly he would either get out, and that quickly, or make a strong effort to have separate committees appointed.

Although the presidents of the two branches, as well as the members, are friendly enough personally, they never seem to be able to get together officially.

The body of Wyatt W. Brown, who killed himsef in a fit of despondency yesterday, was taken to Tarboro, N. C., this morning by way of Norfolk. The local lodge of Elks escorted the body to the Chesspeake and Ohlo passenger pier, where it was put on board the tug lielen. Hev. A. O. Sykes, D. D., E. W. Milstead, G. F. Lester, M. B. Morris and the two brothers of the dead man, accompanied the body to Tarboro.

LUNENBURG COURTHOUSE, VA., April 11.—Lunenburg Circuit Court convened here Monday. On account of excessive rains and muddy roads, Judge Barksdale did not open court until 11 o'clock. There was very little business to be done, and the court was not in session more than an hour.

No jury case, civil or criminal, was tried, and no grand Jury empaneled. There has been no prisoner confined in jail for nearly twelve months. After disposing of a few chancery cases today the judge took a recess until Fiday, when he will return to dispose of several condemnation 'proceedings of the Tidewater Raifroad Company. Only two are contested—one of Mr. Redd, the other against the Lunenburg Lumber Company. The cases are set for Saturday. The raifroad will be represented by Walter Taylor, of Norfolk, and others, and the Lunenburg Lumber Company by ex-Governor Montague, J. B. Bell and Senator William P. Barksdale.

TRIED SUICIDE IN COURT

A Tin Paper Cutter the Only Means at Hand, and That Used Furiously.

(Special to The Times, Dispatch.) NORFOLK, VA., April II,-Mayor Ridlick's municipal house-cleaning proclamation, issued at the request of the Norfolk Woman's Club, produced results. Much house-cleaning was done throughout the city to-day, and Mayor Riddick, Chairman B. Gray Tunstall, of the Street, Sewer and Drain Board and the Health Board regard house-cleaning day as a positive success.

The ladies of the Woman's Club themselves took much interest in the cleaning programme. They saw that their own houses were properly cleaned, and some of them were interested enough to go about the city and see what others were doing.

Street inspector Abe Moses said: "Results are entirely satisfactory. The people fell heartily into the spirit of the day and co-operated with the city authorities to the fullest extent in their efforts to clean up."

and co-operated with the city authorities to the fullest extent in their efforts to clean up."

"They did some cleaning," said Mayor Riddick, but not as much as I should have liked. However, a little of it would have been worth all that has been done to institute numicipal house-cleaning day."

The cleaning to-day will be followed by a warning to all those whose premises remain in an unsanitary condition.

The Health Board regards municipal house cleaning day as a great step in the right direction.

There are many good men to draw from, of which Hon, Briss A, Ayers, of Hig Stone Gap, would perhaps be the strongest. Colonel C. Slemp, the present incumbent, or his son, Bascom, is likely to be the Republican nominee, but they are not without troubles of their own, and from appearances will not have as pialn sailing in the councils of their party nor before the people of the district in the final race as councils of their party nor before the people of the district in the final race as they have heretofore enjoyed.

When coffee gets a person well within its grip and the drug habit is fixed then comes twisting and turning to get free. With many people, if the coffee is left off at breakfast a hendache sets in, and if coffee is taken the old stomach and nervous disorders are simply added to and made more fixed and harder to escape from. Still there is a very casy way to freedom and health.

A woman in Mo. says:

"I never thought of attributing my allments to coffee till, several months ago. I saw a Postum Food Coffee miverlisement which stated that the old kind of coffee was frequently injurious to people, so I thought I would try Postum, anyway, for I was in a most weiched condition, a nervous wreck with weak heart which fluttered and threatened to stop.

NON-JURISDICTION.

Non-Resident Could Not Sue in This State.

This State.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WINCHESTER. VA., April II.—In the Circuit Court to-day Judge Thomas W. Harrison, in the case of Parvin E. Districk's estate against the Indiana State Life Insurance Company, held that court here had no jurisdiction in the case. Dietrick, a prominent man of Martinsburg, W. Va., dropped dead shortly after insuring his life with the defendant company for five thousand dollars, which the company declined to pay.

The only branch of the company in this section is in Richmond, and the plaintiff sought to sue here to recover insurance. Judge Harrison decided that non-residents could not sue in this State. In the same court, in the case of W. C. Whitaere, trustee, against T. Conway, Judge Harrison set aside the sale of certain property owned by Conway in Roanoke as illegal, and holds the trustee responsible, providing for reimbursement of the purchaser.

"The first time I made Postum Coffee, I boiled it well and was delighted with the flavor. My husband who did not know that it was not the old kind of coffee, relished it very much, saying What good coffee that is." But after breakfast I was taken with a hendache and drowslness-caused by the lack of the customary drug. I was resolute, however, and drank it for dimer and supper. The next day the headache was not so had and by the third day it was gone. Day by day I felt better and, better, and soon noticed that I did not the so easily as I used to. I feel like thanking you so much for Postum Food Coffee."—Name given by Postum Co., Hattle Creek, Mich.

Headache, when coffee is left off, is rare, but is a sure, infallible sign of a poisoned, drugged nervous system, calling more and more for the drug that caused the trouble. To yield to the ferce demand of the drug habit is most humilating and sinks the victim deeper, with certainty of fixed organic disease if persisted in, it is easy to change from coffee, if Postum Food Coffee is well in the being distinct hower and belong enough, has the deep seal brown of Mocha and the soft smooth (not strong) flayor nuch like old Gov't Java, the laste being distinct hower and belonging only to genuine Postum. Leaving off the coffee that breaks down the nerve centres and taking a food drink that supplies the needed elements to rebuild them makes rapid change for the good. The great value of Liquozone lies in the fact that it is deadly to germs, yet harmless to you. Germs are of vegetable origin; and this gas-made product, when absorbed by them, stops their activities. We publish an offer of $1,000 for a disease form that it cannot kill. But to the addy lightly The great value of Liquozone lies in Satterfield-Angier, (Special to The Times Dispatch.)
